POINTS IN POLITICS.

Conventions in Several Different States.

INDIANA DEMOCRATS MEET.

Delegates to the Chicago Convention to Be Selected and a State Ticket Placed in the Field—Pennsylvania Republicans Hold Their State Convention. Conventions Held in Several Other States—Other Political Events.

INDIANAPOLIS, April 21.—The Democratic state convention will meet in this city today. It will send four delegates to Chicago and will nominate candidates for the following state offices: Governor, lieutenant governor, secretary of state, auditor, treasurer, attorney general, superintendent of instructions, statistician, reporter of the supreme court, three supreme and five appellate judges.

The fight for delegates-at-large will be a hot one between the Cleveland and the Gray factions, with chances somewhat in favor of the former. A compromise ticket is talked of, with Senator Voorhees, a Gray man, at the head, instructed to vote for Cleveland, if he is thought by the convention to be available. Many Cleveland men oppose this compromise and will demand that only out-and-out Cleveland men be sent to Chicago. It now seems that the Cleveland men will send instructed delegates from four districts, the Gray men from three, while six are in doubt.

The fight for governor is four cornered, is very warm, and is being largely made on presidential lines. The candidates are John G. Shanklin, of Evansville; Claude Matthews, of Clinton, now secretary of state; Mason J. Niblack, of Vincennes, ex-speaker of the house of representatives, and Mortimer Nye, of Laporte. It is generally admitted that Shanklin and Matthews are in the lead, but several ballots will doubtless be required to settle the nomination.

Shanklin is the representative of the uncompromising Cleveland men. Matthews is regarded as the candidate of the Gray men, though he disclaims the association. Niblack is not unfriendly to Cleveland, while Nye is a pronounced Cleveland man. With the exception of secretary of state there is no contest for the other nominations, the present incumbents being conceded the nominations. For the supreme judgeships there are five candidates, and for the appellate judgeships about twenty. For all the minor offices there are from one to a half dozen candidates, and the convention will no doubt be a long one.

Senators Voorhees and Turpie and most of the Democratic congressmen are present from Washington and are exerting their good offices to secure a compromise and maintain harmony in the convention.

There was a district convention yesterday evening which renominated Congressman Bynum for the fourth time for the seat at Washington which has proved the stepping-stone for many members of both parties to places of higher honor. As the candidacy of Mr. Bynum for renomination was not contested, his nomination was by party acclamation.

Mr. Bynum arrived in the city at noon from Washington in a rather delicate state of health, having been confined to his room at the capital for a week past. He has a severe cold which has impaired his teeth and fevered his face, rendering speech both difficult and painful. To a reporter he said that he was unable to talk upon the "many questions of local interest. He has taken no part in the party fight for the endorsement of Cleveland and Gray, and said that he did not wish to express himself upon that question.

IN PENNSYLVANIA.

Republican State Convention Held at Harrisburg.

HARRISBURG, April 21.—The Republican state convention was called to order by Chairman Waters, of the state committee. Secretary Frank Willing Leach, read the call for the convention, and then the roll of delegates. At the conclusion of the roll call, James W. Latta, of Philadelphia, was chosen temporary chairman.

The resolutions adopted ring with praises of the Republican party. The first one closes with the words: "From first to last the Republican party has been true to its professions and steadfast in its devotion to the public welfare."

President Harrison is unqualifiedly endorsed and his administration lauded to the echo. Blaine shares the eulogy heaped upon the administration.

The McKinley bill is commended. Liberal appropriations for internal improvements are favored, especially for a ship canal between Lake Erie and the Ohio river.

Free coinage of silver is opposed, but "favor the purchase of American silver at its marked value, and the issue by the government of treasury notes in payment thereof."

Favors pensions.

Favors the enactment of more stringent immigration laws than those now in force.

A free ballot and a fair count can only be secured by congressional enactment. After the district electors had been chosen, nominations were made for supreme judge, Judge John C. Henderson, of Crawford county; Judge Thomas Ewing, of Allegheny; R. W. Archibald, of Lackawanna; Judge Wilbur F. Sadler, of Cumberland; Judge Harry White, of Indiana county; Judge John Dean, of Blair and Judge Thomas J. Clayton, of Delaware, were placed in nomination.

The first ballot resulted: Sadler, 61; Dean, 40; Henderson, 42; White, 39; Archibald, 37; Ewing, 30; Clayton, 12.

After seven more ballots were taken Dean received 133 votes, and his nomination was made unanimous.

It was agreed that candidates for congressmen-at-large should be placed in nomination without speeches. The following names were placed in nomination: Alexander MacDowell, of Mercer; George A. Castor, of Philadelphia; General William Lilly, Austin L. Taggart and Dr. C. H. Bressler, of York. Lilly and McDowell was nominated on the first ballot.

Massachusetts Republicans.

BOSTON, April 21.—The Republican state convention for the election of four delegates-at-large and four alternates to the national convention at Minneapolis, June 21, was held in Tremont temple yesterday. Mr. E. S. Draper was selected as temporary chairman, and Hon. William C. Lovering presided over the permanent organization.

The following was adopted: RESOLVED, That we heartily approve the fearless and dignified policy of the administration of President Benjamin Harrison, who has been so ably assisted in all of his loyal endeavors by that noble patriot and statesman, James G. Blaine, in the carrying out and adoption of all true American principles.

Nominations for delegates to the Minneapolis convention were then made as follows: Hon. W. W. Crapo, ex-Governor Brackett, W. Murray Crane, Hon. Oliver Ames and Hon. Wilson Cogswell.

After the first ballot was taken the result of the vote was announced and Messrs. Crane, Crapo, Cogswell and Brackett were declared elected.

M. J. Murray, Howes Norris, Butler R. Wilson and H. Torrey Caddy were chosen alternates and the convention adjourned.

Kansas Democrats.

SALINA, Kan., April 21.—The Democratic politicians who have been here for the past two days struggling to arrange the delegation which should represent this state at the national convention have completed their work, and the state convention which meets here today has nothing to do but ratify what has been done.

Six delegates-at-large were agreed upon. They are ex-Governor George W. Glick, of Atchison; Thomas P. Fenlon, of Leavenworth; W. C. Jones, of Iola, United States marshal under Cleveland; Tully Scott, of Oberlin, receiver of a land office under Cleveland; R. C. Sapp, of Pittsburg, and Thomas M. Firth, of Wichita.

The temporary chairman will be Frank Lynch, of Leavenworth, and the permanent chairman, E. W. Moore, of Wichita, both of whom are pronounced Cleveland men. The delegates selected by the congressional districts are equally pronounced for Cleveland.

At a meeting of the state central committee last night a convention was called for Pittsburg, July 6, to nominate a state ticket and a congressman-at-large.

Oregon Democrats.

PORTLAND, Or., April 21.—There were more representative men in the Democratic convention yesterday than ever before. Although the delegation to Chicago is unimpaired, every member is for Cleveland first, last and at all times. Governor Penney, who is an anti-Cleveland man and has made some pretensions to being a presidential candidate himself, was ignored almost entirely. He was a candidate for national delegate, but received only three votes, and when the resolution to instruct the delegates to offer Penney as a vice presidential candidate came up, it was buried by the friends of Cleveland.

R. R. M. Veatch is the nominee for congress in the first district, and J. H. Slater in the second. The platform in brief endorses the last national platform, condemns the McKinley bill and lavish pensions, and favors the free coinage of silver.

South Carolina Republicans.

COLUMBIA, S. C., April 21.—The old line Republican convention which opened yesterday, spent most of its time in wrangles. It was late at night before the committee on credentials reported and a permanent organization was effected. Then the wrangling again commenced. An effort to smash the machine was evident from a resolution that no federal officeholder be sent as a delegate to the national convention. The resolution was passed, but was afterwards withdrawn. Resolutions were adopted endorsing President Harrison, protection and reciprocity. At 4 a. m. balloting for delegates began, and at 7:30 the convention adjourned, having elected as delegates at large Dr. W. D. Crum, of Charleston; E. H. Deas, of Darling; E. A. Webster, collector of internal revenue, and E. M. Brayton, the old time and well known leader.

Election in Louisiana.

NEW ORLEANS, April 21.—The indications now are that Foster's majority for governor will reach 30,000. A large negro vote was given to Foster in many of the parishes. Fitzpatrick's majority for mayor is now estimated at 5,000. On the McEnery state and city ticket voted in this city there were eighty names of candidates. On the Foster ticket as many more. Besides these there were three other tickets in the field. The count has not yet been completed.

Chairman Knittschmitt says from the figures at hand he roughly estimates that Foster carries the state by not less than 50,000 plurality. He also claims both branches of the legislature by a handsome majority, which means the re-election of United States Senator Gibson.

General Alger Still in the Race.

NEW YORK, April 21.—The Mail and Express says editorially: "General Russell A. Alger informs us that he will not write a letter of withdrawal from the presidential contest. He says he is in the race to remain until the finish; that he favors the sending of uninstructed delegates to the Minneapolis convention, so that when the delegates have all assembled they may exercise their best judgment and nominate the candidate who can best be trusted to win."

sembled they may exercise their best judgment and nominate the candidate who can best be trusted to win."

Women to Name a National Ticket.

MARSHALLTOWN, Ia., April 21.—Mrs. Nellie Sandford Chapin, of this city, chairman of the national committee of equal rights, authorizes the announcement that the national convention of that party will be held at Chicago on May 26 to nominate candidates for president and vice president of the United States. It is to be a mass convention to which any organization representing woman suffrage may send delegates.

Municipal Elections in Illinois.

CHICAGO, April 21.—A large number of municipal elections were held throughout Illinois yesterday. In nearly every case the license question was the controlling issue. So far as heard from, in over 125 towns, about seventy voted for license and fifty for anti-license; in others councils being tied.

SENATE AND HOUSE.

Features of the Day's Proceedings in Both Branches of Congress.

WASHINGTON, April 21.—Mr. Teller's anti-administration free silver speech in the senate yesterday created even more of a sensation than his colleague Mr. Wolcott's recent philippic upon the same subject. Mr. Teller's statement that if the Republican party continues to adhere to the single gold standard the four chief silver producing states of Colorado, Montana, Nevada and Idaho would not hereafter be able to act in co-operation with the Republican party, either in the senate or elsewhere, was not concurred in by Mr. Sanders, of Montana.

Another striking incident of the day was the announcement from Mr. Sherman, chairman of the committee on foreign relations, that he was in error in supposing that existing Chinese restriction laws expired by limitation on May 6. It was now discovered that they ran till July, 1894. The obvious result of this discovery will be that no present action on the Chinese question will be pressed in the senate, though it was called up for remarks if senators wished to speak upon it.

The senate spent an hour in executive session considering the Russian and French extradition treaties and in confirming a number of nominations. Mr. Sherman called up these treaties, and after a short discussion the Russian treaty was given the right of way. The discussion of its provisions brought forth some unfavorable comments on the manner of treatment of Jews in that country, and some senators urged that the treaty might operate to compel this country to return to Russia some of the refugees accused of political offenses, who had been obliged to fly from their native land on account of oppression and accusation. The same line of argument indulged in during the pendency of the British extradition treaty some years ago, when Mr. Riddleberger endeavored to secure its consideration in open session was developed. Mr. Sherman explained the provisions of the treaty and urged its adoption. The matter went over without action.

The house devoted its entire session yesterday to a continuation of the Noyes contested election case. The debate was entirely without incident. The speeches being confined to a technical resume of the case, Mr. Wilson, of Alabama; Mr. Cobb, of Alabama, and Mr. Magnen, of New York, supporting the claim of Mr. Rockwell.

HIS LIFE WORK ENDED.

Death of a Well Known Book Publisher and Newspaper Man.

COLUMBUS, O., April 21.—Henry W. Dorby, for many years the greatest book publisher west of the Alleghenies, died at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon at his apartments at the Normandie hotel in this city, aged seventy-one years. Over forty years ago he established the publishing house of H. W. Dorby & Company in Cincinnati, the company being Harper & Sons, of New York.

He also founded the Cincinnati Enquirer, which he sold to Faran & McLean; afterwards he came to Columbus and owned The Ohio Statesman, which he sold to the late Congressman Samuel S. Cox, of New York. Several years ago Mr. Dorby retired from his bookstore business here. He imported from Europe, on his own selection Alex Stewart's $60,000 art collection. Deceased leaves a wife, three sons and two daughters. His remains will be buried at Spring Grove cemetery, Cincinnati, on Saturday.

LIGHTNING'S FREAK.

Queer Franks Played at a Danville (Ky.) Sanitarium.

DANVILLE, April 21.—During a storm Wednesday morning, about 7 o'clock, lightning struck the large sanitarium belonging to Dr. A. W. Johnston, of Cincinnati. The massive stone step in front of the building was displaced as if by an explosion of dynamite, and a large excavation was made in the earth beneath.

The stroke very singularly left no further marks upon the building, but in a bathroom fifty feet from the front steps it tore a heavy washstand to splinters and wrenched a handle from a portable iron filter without moving it. No further evidences were left of the visitation in the bathroom. None of the inmates were injured.

Fatal Missouri Feud.

CLINTON, Mo., April 21.—About seven miles north of Waupaca, this county, Tuesday Kelly Brock, son of Elias Brock, met John Halsey and his son on the road opposite his house, and becoming involved in a quarrel with them, shot and killed the son instantly and wounded the old man by a shot in the neck and head that will prove fatal. A family feud of long standing is at the bottom of the affair.

DOWN IN A COAL MINE

A Dozen Men Meet an Un- timely Death.

THE FLOODING OF THE MINE.

An Immense Body of Water Suddenly Bursts Through the Workings from an Old Flooded Mine and the Miners Cut Off from All Escape—The Exact Number of Dead Can Not Be Ascertained at Present.

MINERSVILLE, Pa., April 21.—This town, which is situated about four miles from Pottsville, is greatly excited over the horrible accident that occurred late yesterday afternoon at the Lytle colliery, whereby ten or twelve men are said to have lost their lives by the flooding of the mine with an immense body of water that burst through the old workings.

It is said that the accident occurred just about the time the shifts were changing. The exact number of men drowned and their names can not be given. It is authentically announced by the colliery officials that eight men have met their death by the disaster. Among those given out are Miners Dolbein, Bell and Buggy.

The place where the accident occurred is a new coal operation that is being opened up on an immense scale by the Lytle Coal company, an incorporated company, the principal stockholders of which are the Pennsylvania railroad officials and Scranton capitalists. The works are located on Primrose mountain, several miles north of Minersville, and taps the Great Wolf Creek colliery, which has lain idle for many years, owing to an inundation of water.

About two years ago the present operators with unlimited means commenced the reopening of the tract, and have spent many thousand dollars in putting in and opening up new slopes. Diggings are being pushed out from these slopes on all sides for the new workings. The old water lies in it and it is the bursting through of one or more of these deposits without warning that caught the unfortunate miners while at work.

A United Press reporter telephoned to Hoosier particulars. The reply came that it could not be told how many men were drowned, but besides the American miners there were large numbers of Italians and Hungarian laborers at work inside, and it is thought now that at least six of them are also drowned. They could not say, really, where the water came from, but they were surrounded on all sides by water, and while their surveyors and bosses were very careful, somebody evidently has blundered. There were several score of men inside at the time and some of these swam out, while others are said to have been heard talking as if they had reached a high point above the water.

Cured by Faith.

FRANKLIN, Ind., April 21.—A revival, which has been in progress at Trafalgar for many weeks under the direction of Evangelist Charles Spicer, has closed. One of the most conspicuous results of the meeting is the faith-healing of Charles Alexander, the ten-year-old son of William Alexander. He had long been subject to spells, but after going to the meeting and hearing of the great power of faith, he at once laid hold of the matter and told his father that they would not have to take him away to be treated by physicians, "for," said he, "Jesus can make me well." Accordingly he prayed, and one day with a bright face announced to his parents that he was healed. At first little notice was taken of the affair, but weeks have passed and no sign of the disease has reappeared.

Boy Roasted Alive.

NEWARK, N. J., April 21.—Mrs. Kempler left her little boy, three years old, playing in the yard of her residence yesterday afternoon while she went house hunting. Before long the boy grew restless and went to an upper room of the house, where he found some matches. He ignited them and in a moment the boy was a mass of flames. His cries brought a neighbor to the house who extinguished the flames. It was too late, however, as the boy had been almost roasted alive and died in an hour.

Lost Both His Legs.

WOOSTER, O., April 21.—Christian Mellinger, a wealthy young farmer, lost both legs yesterday afternoon while trying to get on a freight train on the Fort Wayne road at Mill Brook. He was thrown from the train which he wanted to board ahead of the Chicago express.

Kicked by a Colt.

WABASH, Ind., April 21.—Milo Pearson, a farmer residing west of this city, was dangerously injured while at work with a colt in a stable. The animal kicked him with both feet in the side and hurt him internally, so that it is doubtful if he recovers.

Looks Brighter for Van Loon.

OTTAWA, O., April 21.—Abraham Seifert testified that Roberts and not Van Loon is the murderer of William Vandemark, at Columbus Grove. One Kelly swore that Van Loon slept with him in Toledo on the night of the robbery.

HON. R. K. HART will not be a candidate for Congress. He says he has been Mr. Paynter's best friend, and will not make the race against him.

It was a stand off after all in New Jersey last week. The Republicans routed the Democrats in Jersey City, and the Democrats flaxed the Republicans in Camden.

OREGON Democrats join in the general endorsement of Cleveland. The ex-President is getting pretty much all the endorsements, whether he receives the nomination or not.

JUDGE S. S. SAVAGE, of Ashland, is suggested as excellent material for delegate from the State-at-large to the Chicago convention. All the Democrats down this way will be for Sam, if he wants the honor.

HIDES are on the free list and the boot and shoe manufacturing business is on a boom. Iron is protected and the manufacturers in that line are shutting their mills or cutting down the wages of their employes. Significant? Well, rather.

THE largest individual woolen manufacturer in the United States spoke in favor of the Free-wool bill when it was before the House recently. He ought to know what is needed to build up the woolen industry of the country.

If free trade is such a curse to a country, isn't it rather singular that the laborers and factory hands of England oppose a move to return to protection? They hissed and hooted down a speaker who tried to talk high tariff to them a few days ago.

MR. T. B. HARRISON is suggested as a candidate to fill the vacancy which will be caused by the resignation of State Senator Poyntz. Mr. Harrison is one of Lewis County's best citizens. He is an enthusiastic Democrat and will hardly have any opposition if he wants the honor.

AFTER THE RAILROADS.

Auditor Norman Notifies Them To Pay Back Taxes—Nearly $160,000 Now Due.

A special from Frankfort to the Courier-Journal says the effort to collect the delinquent State taxes due from railroads which have claimed exemption under the act of 1884 is now fairly put to the test. Auditor Norman has sent out to each delinquent road a circular letter, inclosing a copy of Attorney General Hendrick's opinion, and a statement of the amount of taxes due.

The total amount due the State since the Hewitt revenue act of 1886 repealed the exemption act of 1884 and which includes the years 1887, 1888, 1889, 1890 and 1891, is $158,297.78. The road from which the greatest sum is due is the Covington, Maysville and Big Sandy, which owes $55,090.72. The Louisville, St. Louis and Texas is $25,120.22 is next, and the Louisville and Nashville in $18,577.03, the third in amount due.

If the roads do not pay these taxes by May 1, it is the intention of the Attorney General to have the suits ready for the next Fiscal Court in Franklin county, which is in June. Until the question is fully decided for the State, the counties, cities and towns through which these roads run can not expect to enforce their claims for local delinquent taxes.

The amount claimed from the Covington, Maysville and Big Sandy for the various years is as follows: 1888, $9,975; 1889, $13,986.90; 1890, $13,340.26; 1891, $17,788.56; total, $55,090.72. The Kentucky Union comes in for the following: 1887, $363.75; 1888, $365.75; 1889, $722; 1890, $4,092.75; 1891, $3,531.64; total, $9,077.89. The Kentucky Midland—1889, $1,900; 1890, $1,700; 1891, $1,373.81; total, $4,073.81. The Kinnaconick, and Free-stone—1891, $191.25.

LOTS OF TROTTERS

And Pacers Entered for the Stake Races at the Next Maysville Fair—The List.

The entries for the various stake races to be trotted at the Maysville fair next August closed a few days ago. The list has been made up, and it is a long one, as usual. There are ninety-four in all—thirty-four in the Cincinnati Tobacco Warehouse Stake for foals of 1890, twenty-seven in the Smith stake for foals of 1889, eligible to 2:40 class; sixteen in the Merchants' stake for foals of 1888, eligible to the 2:30 class; nine in the stake for two-year-old pacers and eight in the stake for three-year-old pacers. ## A Vicious Hawk.

An Auburn business man and a friend were out hunting the other day. A big hawk flew over their heads and they blazed away at him. The shot broke the bird's wing and he came to the ground, alighting on his back. He was unable to turn over and get upon his feet, but was lively just the same, as the Auburn hunters found before they succeeded in killing him.

The business man placed the ramrod of his gun in the hawk's big, grasping claws, all of which straightaway closed, like the jaws of an enraged mud turtle snapping at a stick in the hands of mischievous boy. With the claws thus taken care of the business man's friend proceeded to wring the bird's neck. In the earlier stages of the operation the harder the friend worked the tighter would the hawk grasp the iron ramrod and flap its wings.

All this was fun for the hunters, who after a long struggle declared themselves winners of the scrap. They had hardly so proclaimed when the bird got his wind, and leaving the ramrod viciously attacked his persecutors.

As fate would have it, the business man's friend, being nearest, was the first to catch it. The hawk lighted on his wrist, and the way he stuck there was a caution. One claw sunk deep into the hunter's wrist, and he called loud and long for mercy.

The business man, seeing that something must be done at the risk of his life, finally went to his friend's rescue. He got a good hold on the sunken claw, braced his feet against a rock, and was successful in pulling it out. As the claw came out, the hawk fell back and in a moment was still in death. They found that the bird's wings measured three feet and ten inches from tip to tip.—Maine Letter.

The Cave Craze.

Half a dozen of our lads have lately had the cave craze. They have been reading dime literature and became the slaves of an intense desire to become robbers and live in caves. One day a few weeks since they took shovels, picks and hoes and went into a piece of woods near the city, and without even thinking whose the property might be, began to dig a cave. A hole four feet square and seven feet deep was dug. At the bottom the hole was widened to nearly eight feet. Over this was placed old planks and brush and leaves, so that the "cave" was completely hidden. Here they crawled into their "wild abode" and imagined all sorts of terrible things of themselves.

About a week ago the owner of the woods happened to be going by the spot and noticed smoke rising from the ground. He poked around in the leaves and discovered the boys smoking cigarettes. "What are you doing down there?" he called. "We are robbers and we'll cut your throat," said one youthful voice. "No we ain't either," said another rather frightened boy; "we're only boys and we won't hurt you. This is our cave."

The owner of the land made the boys get up out of the pit, and while they were crawling up cut a brace of birches. But when six lads in knee pants stood before him he relented and punished them by making them immediately take shovels and fill up the hole, into which some of his cattle might have fallen and broken their necks.—Lewiston Journal.

Valuable Real Estate.

The prodigious increase in the value of Fifth avenue property is indicated by the terms in which a part of the land at the southwest corner of Fifth avenue and Thirtieth street, upon which the new hotel, the Holland house, stands, has been leased by Mrs. Mary J. Van Doren, the builder and owner of that imposing edifice. It is understood that Mrs. Van Doren was able to buy outright three fourths of the land necessary for the site, but that for the corner part of it she was compelled to pay the almost incredible ground rent of $13,000 a year clear, she agreeing to pay the taxes.

It is understood also that the lease is for 100 years. Hence the owner of this land and the heirs will enjoy an income of $13,000 per year, free of all burden or expenses, for the next 100 years. Think of it! Thirteen hundred thousand dollars merely for the use of a piece of land on a Fifth avenue corner, without the owner being obliged to spend one cent for improvements, taxes or any other form of outlay. Fortunately, indeed, are the possessors and inheritors of Fifth avenue corner lots.—New York Cor. Brooklyn Eagle.

Twelve Houses Burned.

OLEAN, N. Y., April 21.—Fire late last night caught in the saloon and boarding house of M. C. Sullivan, on Oak street. It spread both ways, totally destroying twelve houses and three barns. The Commercial hotel, on Spruce street, was also destroyed. The loss will be heavy.

SPRINGDALE.

Sam Lemon is reported as being down with a very bad case of measles.

Elder T. P. Degman will preach at Bethany Christian Church next Sunday.

Mose O'Brien relieved his brother as operator and agent at this place Tuesday.

Cabin Creek was on a big tear Monday. It could not be crossed until late in the evening.

A one-horse negro minstrel troupe struck this place Monday night. It was pronounced a "fake."

The traveling Auditor of the C. and O. was here last Monday, and found everything in the best of order.

Mrs. T. P. Degman, who is a very successful bee keeper, sold and shipped four fine colonies of bees to a Mr. Bratten, of Sardis, last week.

Our clever and efficient railroad operator, Mr. Ed. O'Brien, has been promoted. He now receives $55 per month instead of $40, and will be sent to Dover.

Our public school will close next Friday, the 22nd instant. This term was taught by Professor Garrett, of Lewis County, and is by far the best school that has been taught here for a number of years.

Uncle "Rug," our boss fisherman, caught a catfish in one of his nets that weighed fifty-four pounds. He at the same time took from the same net smaller fish weighing over a hundred pounds.

The writer of these items would be pleased to make the acquaintance of your "Desha Valley correspondent," and therefore extends to him an invitation to visit Springdale at his earliest convenience.

Mrs. William Cole, living just below Cottageville, is the owner of a mare that will be twenty-seven years old on the 27th of this month. But the strangest thing connected with this item is, that on the 7th day of May the mare will drop her twenty-third foal.

ORANGEBURG.

Very small vote at the primary election last Saturday.

John Parker, of Maysville, was here Saturday showing his horse, Henry Clay.

There are two blacksmiths in town, two merchants, one physician. And we have a grist mill which grinds every Saturday.

MEALS served at all hours, at Luzi's Restaurant.

THE MARKETS.

CINCINNATI TOBACCO MARKET.

[Tuesday.]

The "breaks" were very small—only 25 hhd of old and 180 of new, making 205 hhd, which was 76 less than the opening sale day last week. There was a fair attendance of buyers, and they were bidding much better than most of the time last week.

The small quantity of old that was offered sold very well.

There was an improved demand for all grades of new, and the market showed more business. Of the 25 hhd (old) 4 sold from $2.50 to $3.80, 5 from $4 to $5.70, 14 from $6 to $7.90, 2 from $8 to $9.50.

Of the 180 hhd (new) 10 sold from $1 to $3.95, 64 from $4 to $5.95, 64 from $6 to $7.90, 20 from $8 to $9.50, 14 from $10 to $11.25, 7 from $12 to $14.25 and 1 at $15.

THOSE APPOINTMENTS.

The Courier-Journal Commends the Governor's Selection for Railroad Commissioners.

Speaking of the appointment of Railroad Commissioners, the Courier-Journal says, editorially: "It has been assumed for some time that Messrs. McChord and Woodson would be members of the commission, and the suggestion has met with unqualified approval throughout the State. The selection of Senator Poyntz as their co-adjutor gives to the commission another young man of experience in public life and marked ability for the work that lies before him. His character and career justify any honor the Governor could confer.

"It is hardly necessary to speak further of these three gentlemen. They are well known and of high personal character. Under the new Constitution the duties of the Railroad Commissioners will be exceedingly onerous and difficult, and the selection of the Commissioners has been one of the most delicate duties that the Governor has had to perform.

"The appointment of these gentlemen is a recognition of the young men of the party. Senator Poyntz headed the Clay delegation from Mason County in the State convention last year, and his appointment is a complete refutation of the suggestions from certain quarters that the Governor was reserving his favors for personal followers.

"Altogether the Commission is admirably formed, and commands at once the confidence of the people."

The Frankfort Capital adds its commendation. It says: "The nomination of Messrs. Woodson and McChord had long been discounted, but that of Mr. Poyntz caused a general and very pleasant surprise, as no mention of his name had been publicly made. The standing of Mr. Poyntz in the Senate was shown by the prompt and unanimous adoption of Judge Lindsay's motion to confirm his nomination without reference to a committee. His brother Senators and friends crowded about his desk to extend congratulations. The only disagreeable fact in connection with the appointment of Mr. Poyntz is, that it will result in his resignation as a member of the Senate."

A Big River Expected.

The river rose about four feet here last night, and is climbing the bank fast today. Heavy rains are reported above, and a big rise is looked for. A fifty foot stage is expected at Cincinnati.

The Skill and Knowledge

Essential to the production of the most perfect and popular laxative remedy known, have enabled the California Fig Syrup Company to achieve a great success in the reputation of its remedy, Syrup of Figs, as it is conceded to be the universal laxative. For sale by all druggists.

Real Estate Transfers.

J. L. Horton and others by commissioner to Henry Gollenstein, 60 acres of land near Washington; consideration, $6,690.

Circuit Court.

In the case against Lewis Thompson for cutting Dick Harris, the law and facts were submitted to the court and the defendant was fined $200 and costs. The fine was repleved. On a former trial defendant was fined $500.

A. C. McLaughlin was fined $25 and sent to jail ten days for carrying a razor concealed.

"Little Tycoon" Not Coming.

The opera house managers are "hopping mad" to-day. A letter was received this morning from the Business Manager of the "Little Tycoon" cancelling his date here on April 27th. He writes that the company closes the season April 23rd—to-morrow—but the opera house people say the company has dates in Baltimore next week. A suit for damages may result from the canceling of the contract here. There was a big demand for seats. The opera house managers had a good contract, and are in nowise to blame for the failure of the company to fill its engagement.

Landslides Delay O. and O. Trains.

The C. and O.'s eastbound F. F. V. due here last night at 8 o'clock did not put in an appearance until 6 o'clock this morning. It was followed shortly afterwards by the Russell accommodation and the Maysville accommodation, both of which were due here last evening.

The delay was caused by a landslide a mile and a half below Augusta. This occurred yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock, and was caused by the heavy rains that have prevailed for several days. Ten or twelve hours hard work was necessary to get the track clear and in shape for trains.

Another landslide occurred near Springdale last night, but caused very little delay. The company expects to have trains on time this afternoon.

SOME excitement was caused last night at nine o'clock in the neighborhood of the jail by a shot. Quiet was restored when it was learned no one was hurt, and that the prisoners had not made a break for liberty. Jailer Kirk accidentally discharged his pistol.

MR. ERNIE WHITE has returned from a trip through some of the surrounding counties soliciting orders for the "Redskin" smoking and chewing tobacco. This new brand is growing in favor. The firm reports an increasing business. "Redskin" is being widely advertised.

MR. SIMON NELSON was summoned to Cincinnati yesterday afternoon by a telegram announcing that his father, Mr.

THE Hamilton County (Ohio) Association of the Grand Army, at Cincinnati, has decidedly unanimous in favor of the C. and O. as the official route to the National Grand Army Encampment at Washington, next September. The fight between the roads has been hard, and this is a signal victory for the C. and

O., and its passenger officials are greatly elated over it.

THE office of the Stonewall House at Mayslick was the scene of much excitement this morning. Messrs. George Longnecker and James R. Raymond got into a dispute over some trivial matter, and weapons were drawn. But for the prompt action of the hotel clerk and a Mr.

McAtee blood might have flowed. The affair is much regretted, for both disputants are highly respected citizens.

MR. RICHARD WATKINS' relatives received good news from him yesterday.

He has been under treatment at the Keeley Institute at Dwight, Ill., only a week or so, and writes that he has no desire for liquor any more. He has secured a position in a branch of the Institute at Kirkwood, fourteen miles from St. Louis, and will go there in a few days to enter upon his duties. He adds that there has been a wonderful improvement in the other Maysvillians and Mason Countians now there, and says Mr. Edward Forman gets up every morning "singing like a lark." "Dexter Kehoe is on top here," concludes Mr. Watkins, "and it was through him I got the position at Kirkwood."

MR. McAtee's Sale Postponed.

FOREIGN EVENTS.

News of the Old World of Interest to Americans.

PREPARING FOR MAY DAY.

The King of Italy Not Afraid of Anarchists—Anarchists Blow Up a Bridge at Madrid—They Threaten to Burn the Town—Other Cable Dispatches.

ROME, April 21.—The activity of the police to repress all anarchistic demonstrations on May Day has been redoubled during the last three days. Reports reached the chief of police on Monday that attempts would be made by anarchists to blow up the Quirinal and the palace and he at once set men to work walling up the lower windows, the openings into the arch and the underground passages. King Humbert first learned of the progress of the work last night and was highly indignant. "Thank God," he is said to have exclaimed, "the time has not yet come when the king of the Italian people must fortify his home against them."

He sent for the chief of police at once and not only ordered the work already done demolished, but also cautioned him against taking measures likely to manifest distrust of the people on the part of the working people.

Anarchist Papers Seized.

LONDON, April 21.—Inspector Melville, conspicuous in the Waltham case, Tuesday raided the office of The Commonwealth, an anarchist journal. Several bundles of incendiary manuscript and all the type were seized. Moberly, the publisher, had been arrested previously. The seizure is supposed to be the beginning of a systematic movement on the part of the government against the anarchist agitators of London.

Anarchists Blow Up a Bridge.

MADRID, April 21.—Armed anarchists marched through Herrera, Castile, yesterday evening and blew up the bridge over the river. There were about forty in the band, and they carried red and black flags. They threatened to burn the town in case they were interfered with.

Yellow Fever on Shipboard.

GENOA, April 21.—The Brazilian steamship Duchessa di Genova has arrived here with yellow fever on board and has been quarantined. There are 872 passengers on board, and about fifty of them are ill. There were seven deaths during the voyage.

Hired Halls.

BERLIN, April 21.—The Vorwaerts says sixteen halls have been hired for May Day demonstrations. The paper advises workmen not to let the capitalists prevent them from celebrating the day.

WAYWARD CHILDREN.

Boy and Girl Attempt to Elope, but the Girl Only Succeeds.

ALLIANCE, O., April 21.—Jesse Howell, aged thirteen, the wayward daughter of an estimable widow, and Charles Vasper, aged twelve, son of a neighbor, decided Monday evening to elope. The girl, during her mother's absence from home, broke open her trunk with a hatchet and took $50. Then the two started by different routes to the Union depot to catch a train for Cleveland.

The boy was arrested on the way by Truant Officer Spicer, but he did not divulge his secret, and after being detained a short time was released. He missed the train, however, and the little girl, not at all discouraged, went alone.

The boy has been waiting until he could hear from her, but no trace of her has yet been obtained, and it is believed she is in Springfield or Cincinnati. Her mother is nearly frantic with grief. She is small for her age, stout, has red cheeks, dark hazel eyes, dark hair and wore a pink fascinator, gray dress, with black dots in it, and a long green cape or circular. She and the boy had been very intimate for some time.

Arguing a Contempt Case.

INDIANAPOLIS, April 21.—The contempt case against W. O. Fishback, editor, and George M. Allen, proprietor, of the Terre Haute Express, came up in the supreme court yesterday afternoon. Mack & Henry, Piety & Piety and Fishback & Koppe appeared for the defendants, and Finley McNutt and W. C. Hammel for the state. W. P. Fishback presented his argument during the afternoon. In brief, he endeavored to show two kinds of contempt, direct and constructive. Direct contempt is committed in the presence of the judge, and the court only punishes what it sees. The defendants' was averred, and several prominent Terre Haute people believe that Judge Taylor was endeavoring to stop the investigation, and the article was published in The Express with a view of stimulating justice and not with a view of contempt.

McKinley for Congress.

COLUMBUS, O., April 21.—There is a rumor afloat here that Governor McKinley will be nominated for congress in the new Stark-Columbiana district by the convention that meets in Salem on May 6. Governor McKinley when seen said he had heard nothing of it. The fact that his term in congress would not begin until his gubernatorial term expires, leads many to believe there may be something in it.

Will Decide It Next Tuesday.

COLUMBUS, O., April 21.—The Democrat state central committee meets here next Tuesday to arrange the time and place for holding the state convention. It will be held either in Columbus or Cleveland, probably the former, and the date will probably be Wednesday and Thursday, June 1 and 2.

Almost Like the First.

COLUMBUS, O., April 21.—The second report of the state board of charities in their investigation of the alleged cruelties in the Athens asylum for the insane was made public by the governor yesterday afternoon. It exonerates the officials, and is almost exactly the same as the first report.

CALIFORNIA AGAIN SHAKEN.

The First Earthquake Followed by Other Shocks.

ELMIRA, Cal., April 21.—The severe earthquake shock of Tuesday morning was followed by several lighter ones yesterday morning, commencing at 2 o'clock and continuing at intervals until 9 o'clock. Seven distinct shocks were felt here in all. No further damage is reported.

Three Distinct Shocks Felt.

DIXON, Cal., April 21.—This place was again shaken by three distinct shocks of earthquake yesterday morning, one at 2 o'clock, one at 4 o'clock and another at 8:30 o'clock. They were all of short duration.

Stockton Not Much Shaken.

STOCKTON, Cal., April 21.—At 2:05 yesterday morning two slight shocks of earthquake were felt in this city. They lasted hardly more than a couple of seconds and were not felt by many persons.

It Awoke the People.

BENICIA, Cal., April 21.—A few minutes after 2 o'clock yesterday morning a shock of earthquake was felt here. It was of short duration, but violent enough to awaken many people.

Lasted Six Seconds.

SACRAMENTO, April 21.—At 2:04 a. m. yesterday another heavy shock of earthquake visited this city, lasting about six seconds. The vibration was north and south.

FIRING LOUISVILLE.

Incendiaries Apply the Torch in Six Different Places.

LOUISVILLE, April 21.—An incendiary or band of incendiaries is at work in the west end of this city. Six separate fires occurred Tuesday night between 8 and 12 o'clock, all within a radius of a dozen blocks. The loss is about as follows: The Excelsior works of T. C. Commission, $4,000; partially insured; C. T. Head's tobacco rehandling works $5,000, insured, and four stables, aggregating a loss of $4,000. The fires were evidently from an incendiary origin, in two instances men being seen running from the ignited buildings.

William King, colored, was caught almost in the act of firing one of the stables, and it is believed he will confess and expose a sensational plot.

Famine in Texas.

AUSTIN, April 21.—Vague reports that have been circulating for some time past about excessive drouth and famine in the extreme western portion of the state has just received a deplorable confirmation in an appeal to the government and citizens of the state at large for assistance. The claim is that the people are starving to death. There is no food and there has been no rain in some sections for three years. Vegetation is dead, and cattle are dying by thousands.

Conductor Killed.

LEXINGTON, Va., April 21.—Tim Sullivan, a well known conductor on the Shenandoah division of the Norfolk and Western railway, fell from the top of a refrigerator car on the limited dispatch, northbound, at Lockland station, yesterday, and was instantly killed. He was well known in the Order of Railway Conductors, and at one time railroaded on the western division of the Chesapeake and the Big Four.

A Horrid Wife Murder.

BUFFALO, April 21.—The discovery has been made by the police that a horrible murder has been committed at a tenement house on Carroll street. The body of Mrs. Mary Catharine Biever was found in bed, with the head crushed in with an ax that was lying on the floor. The murder had been committed late Sunday by the woman's husband, Peter Biever, a lake fireman. He has not yet been arrested.

Burglars Make a Good Haul.

NEW YORK, April 21.—A special from Sag Harbor, L. I., says that a large safe in the store of Hildreth & Hind, in the postoffice building, was blown up and shattered by burglars Tuesday night. Valuable papers and money to the amount of $5,000 were stolen. There is no clew to the burglars.

Cloudburst.

JEFFERSONVILLE, Ind., April 21.—Something in the nature of a cloudburst was experienced here yesterday, causing the streets to be flooded and a temporary suspension of business. Reports from the interior are that the streams are bank full and lowlands are inundated. The river is rising at a rapid rate at this point.

Will Continue the Fight.

PITTSBURG, April 21.—It is authoritatively stated here that the bricklayers' strike, which has been on for fifty weeks, will continue indefinitely. All efforts toward bringing about a settlement have been futile, and both sides will continue the fight throughout the summer.

Bunce Steerer O'Brien.

UTICA, N. Y., April 21.—Judge Cox Wednesday refused the petition of Bunco Steerer O'Brien for a release from prison. He held that O'Brien's crime came under the extradition treaty.

Base Ball.

BALTIMORE, April 21.—The game yesterday between the Baltimore and New Yorks resulted in the latter's getting it by forfeit, because of Captain Van Halteren's refusal to continue the game just as the visitors were about to start their half of the sixth inning, claiming that the Orioles did not have the time to catch the train for Boston and continue the game. Captain Ewing claimed that he was not notified of the club's anxiety to leave so early, while Van Halteren claimed that the fact of his starting in to play at the advertised time was an admission of a notification. Both teams put up a strong game, which was played in a drizzling rain. Attendance, 1,250.
